

KEEP EMPLOYEES ENGAGED, NO MATTER WHERE THEY ARE

As more and more staff work remotely all over the world, keeping your employees engaged has never been more important. Understanding the emotional and physical wellbeing of your workforce is critical to effectively lead an organisation, especially during times of crisis and uncertainty.

Local Measure's simple and intuitive feedback tool can help businesses of all sizes take a quick pulse check on their employees to gauge sentiment, take action and improve employee satisfaction.

Benefits

- Improve employee engagement: Give your people a voice and understand how they're feeling so they stay engaged
- Drive culture of continuous improvement: Get honest, real-time feedback from employees that you can action immediately
- More engaged remote workforce: Capture valuable insights to help people transition to remote working

Features

- Simple and intuitive 2-question emoji survey
- Non-intrusive - delivered via email, Slack or Cisco® Webex Teams
- Real-time employee sentiment score
- Response management to respond to staff feedback
- Dashboard to analyze insights and trends
- Quick and easy to implement

How are you feeling about work at the moment?

What could we be doing better?

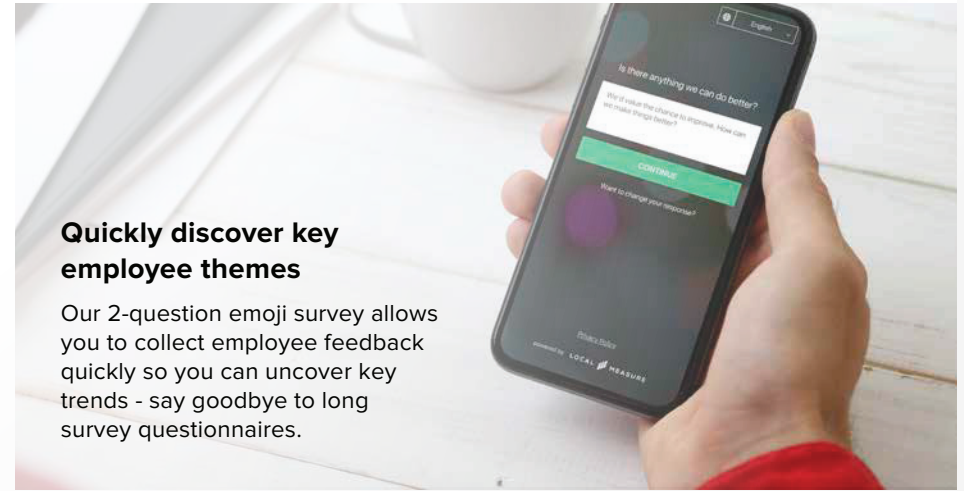

Stay close to the wellbeing of your remote workforce

Regardless of where your employees are based, Local Measure allows you to quickly check-in on how your staff are doing using emojis to support their transition to work from home.

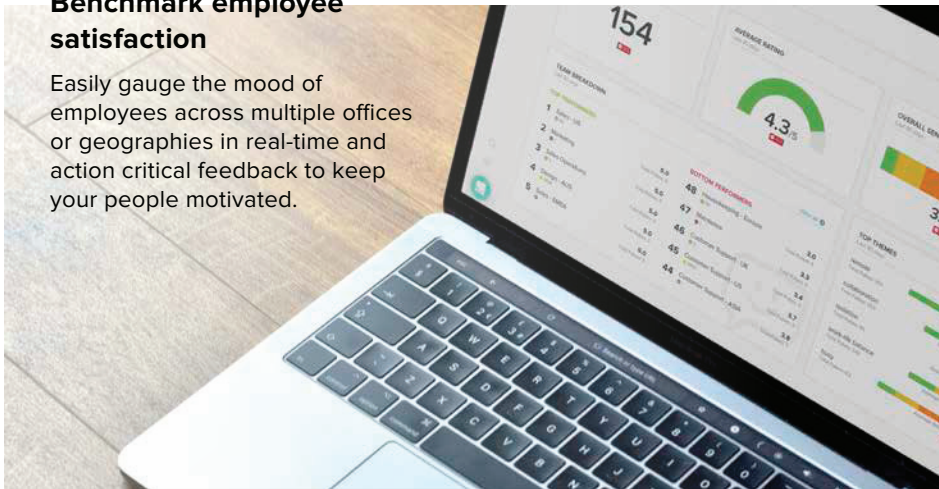

Quickly discover key employee themes

Our 2-question emoji survey allows you to collect employee feedback quickly so you can uncover key trends - say goodbye to long survey questionnaires.

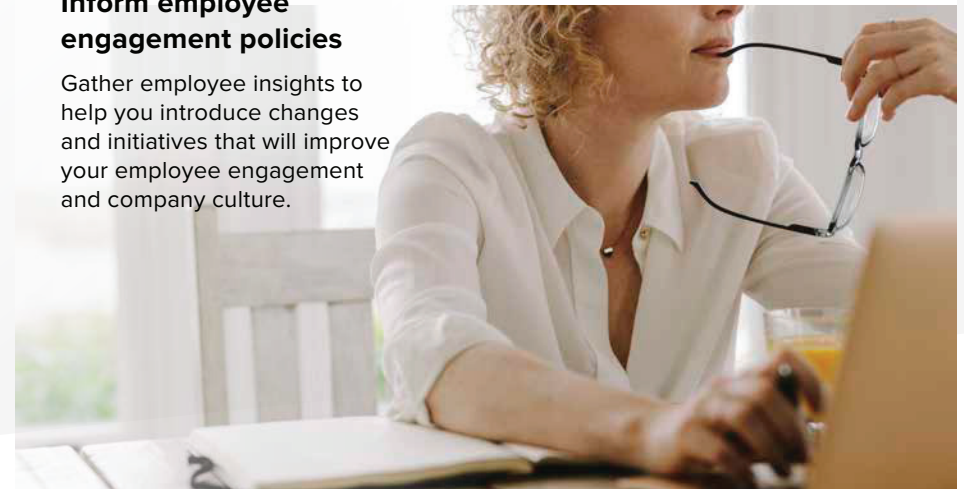

Benchmark employee satisfaction

Easily gauge the mood of employees across multiple offices or geographies in real-time and action critical feedback to keep your people motivated.

Inform employee engagement policies

Gather employee insights to help you introduce changes and initiatives that will improve your employee engagement and company culture.

For more information on Local Measure, contact an Account Manager today.